MORRISVILLE FAIR IN FULL BLOOM

It is a Great Exposition This Year. Big Exhibits of Horses, Pure Bred Stock, Boys' and Girl's Club Work, State Fish Hatchery, etc. It is worth Seeing.The 48th annual Lamoille Valley Fair promises to eclipse all previous records and the management is to be congratulated upon the prospects.This year, one day has been added, and all day Monday, exhibits, and attractions of various kinds were arriving at the grounds and early yesterday morning the task of judging the various departments was under way.Never before has there been an exhibit of high-class stock, some of the finest accredited herds of cattle in the state being on exhibition in the model new barn, just completed at great expense. Notable among the exhibits here is the Holstein herd from the State Farm in Waterbury, prize winners at Springfield last year. A fine string of Guernseys is shown by the Corle J. Ranch of St.
Albans; Jerseys by W. H. Wool of Essex Center and Ayrshires by S. R.
Hooper of Cambridge, while nearly all of the old exhibitors are on hand.There are about 74 horses entered in the races and on the ground, and exciting contests are assumed. The track is in excellent shape and fast time can be expected. The 2:26 class raced yesterday, received so many entries, it was necessary to race in two divisions each providing a lively contest.
Added attractions this year are notable chief among them being the interesting and instructive fish exhibit, in especially constructed tanks in the Floral hall, under the direction of Commissioner Sheldon. Do not miss this.The exhibit of Boys' and Girls' Club work occupies the east side of the Floral hall and demonstrations are held from the stage each afternoon. This is one of the most interesting departments.
The showing in the Floral hall is excellent. Lovers of the midway will find the Merry-Go-Round, a Ferris Wheel and all the other featureswhich go to make this just one round of pleasure.The airplane arrived early yesterday and is making successful flights daily. Passengers are being taken up same as last year.The vaudeville is especially good this year and all in all, you cannot afford to miss one day, as only undesirable weather can prevent this fair from being the best and greatest fair ever staged in the Lamoille Valley.

ST. JOHNSBURY WINS

The baseball game Tuesday was a corker, best ever seen in town or county, just as we predicted.It was hard fought from start to finish and full of thrills. St. Johnsbury won by a score of 2 to 1.

THE RACES TUESDAY

There were so many entries in the 2:26 class that it was pulled off in two sections, each with a purse of $200.The first section, with eight horses, was won by Judge Clayton, owned by Holden & Aldrich of Lancaster, N. H., in three straight heats; best time 2:19.4.The section, with eight horses, was won by Prince Abbott, after a hard fought contest with Anna Bell W., taking two heats; best time, 2:21.4.

The Running Race

This was for half-mile and was a very pretty and exciting event that pleased the crowd. Virginia was the winner. Best time, 59.3 seconds.

THE RACES TODAY

There are seven to start in the 2:30 class; eight in the 2:19 and nine in the 2:22 class, and these promise to be real races and for blood.There are four entries that will start in the running race and it will sure please lovers of good horses.

The Sheldon Fair

Great Exhibition of Franklin County Farmers at Sheldon JunctionFor years the big fair of Franklin county has been an attraction for hundreds from this county. It has always been a clean fair—a good fair.The grounds are admirably situated, the buildings good, the attractions above the average of Vermont fairs and the management square.
Ex-Gov. Charles Gates has been for years the leading spirit of this great fair, which is about all that need be said in its praise. Now he has his son to help him "carry on" and with him, as for years, the leading farmers and business men of that county, one of the very best farming counties in Vermont.The buildings have been greatly improved this year. The number and quality of the special attractions greatly increased, while the exhibits of good stock in every department promise to be larger and better than ever before.See big advertisement on another page and make your plans to go.Raymond Hunter and Frank Bull, of Lyndonville, were fined in St.
Johnsbury court, for beating a strike breaker, Edward Rice, at a dance recently. The two were out on a strike.

Save This Date

Start Early Monday Morning, Sept-4th, Labor DayThe plans are all completed for the Mammoth Celebration on Mt. Mansfield on that date.With good weather Mt. Mansfield will be covered with Humanity.There will be music all day and all the time, furnished by Stowe Military Band, Johnson Serenade Band and the Morrisville Military Band, and a speech by the Honorable Frederick G. Fleetwood, candidate for Congress from the First District of Vermont.This promises to be the greatest success of any Celebration held in Lamoille County in many years.Every citizen should be proud to attend for Mt. Mansfield is the finest spot in our state.

STOWE

The public schools will open September five. The resignation of Superintendent C. D. Howe, who has been in charge of the Morrisville Stowe, Elmore district for two years is received here with much regret.Mr. Howe goes to Poulney as superintendent of the Rutland southwest district. Mr. Howe will go to Poulney some time next week.

BEAUTIFUL LAKE EDEN

A few facts about this Lake—one of the prettiest of many in VermontWe had heard much in praise of this beautiful little lake, but never appreciated just what a wonderfully attractive camping place it was, with its miles of verdure covered shores, little bays, inlets, nestled so prettily among the lofty mountains and little hills that overshadow it.No resort that we know of in the state has finer beaches, of clear, white sand or more of them, making ideal bathing everywhere we could see.Much has been done to make this resort more attractive. An ideal lunch, ice cream or tea house has been built near the mouth of the lake, where it commands a fine view and where the best of home eatables around, as the editor can testify.
The wide veranda on the north side, with its cozy tables, must have been an ideal spot during the hot weather of the past weeks, for tired and hungry travelers on their way from the Lamoille Valley to Lowell and Newport.Now, if the campers will join with the editor, and give us facts and news of general interest, especially regarding improvements made, or to be made another season, the sale of cottage site, improvements on cottages, sale of cottages to be improved, visitors at the different cottages now, especially those from distant cities and states, in fact anything that will help boom this beautiful lake, the editor will do his part to give it the widest publicity in all his papers.To make this easy for all campers, we have arranged with Mrs. Ruggles, of the before mentioned tea or lunch house, to forward such items to us, as may be handed in, every Saturday morning.Now let us all get together and make the attractions of Lake Eden better known and boom this resort, till there are two cottages where now only one is to be seen.—Editor.

Uplift Club Notes

On Wednesday, August 16, a regular meeting of the Uplift Club was held at the home of Julia Ellsworth.
Meeting opened with Lord's prayer, followed by a vocal duet. Quotation were miscellaneous. Fifteen members and one guest present.
Reports were then given, followed by a solo sung by Shirley Welch. Three names were voted on for membership. Viola Gilbert gave a very interesting talk about the Summer School in Burlington, that was much enjoyed by all. The meeting closed with a vocal solo by Helen Parker and the reading of the Club verses, after which refreshments of punch and wafers were served by the hostess.
